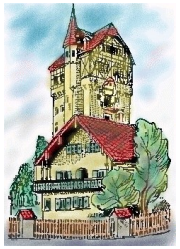
Benefit to ARNG / USAR



- Commanders train to unit METL tasks and receive an external assessment
- Units deployed to CMTC receive high-intensity training equivalent to NTC and JRTC
- DA CTC-D pays for travel, equipment, and materials for units training at CMTC. USAREUR, 7th ATC, or 100th ASG pays for non CMTC units
- Units deploying to 7th ATC are able to execute an actual overseas deployment to fall in on existing equipment. Great opportunity to exercise mobilization plans
- Program can enhance unit retention by allowing soldiers to train in Germany

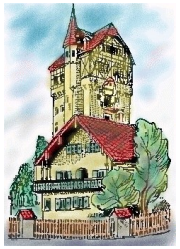
NCOES/ OES HISTORY

Seventh Army Training Command was the site selected to host the first of many training events in support of mobilized Reserve Component soldiers. The institutional training program for mobilized Reserve Component soldiers started with TF Santa Fe which was performing force protection duty here in Europe.

7th ARMY TRAINING COMMAND
RC LNO Integration Brief



NCOES/ OES Current

Today, the Reserve Component Liaison Staff serves as the vital link between the mobilized Reserve Component soldiers and the NCOES / OES courses they require. KFOR and other soldiers in the EUCOM AOR are the current beneficiaries of this training. Our office works closely with all of the training providers, which are as follows: 7th Army NCOA, 3rd BN 166th NCOA, 3747th MFTB-E, and USASMA.
